Description:

This workshop is designed to help educators develop the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to effectively engage diverse students and create inclusive learning environments. The workshop will explore the intersectionality of the five lenses of diversity: disability, culture, gender/sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, and family structure.

Outcomes:

Attendees will have a greater understanding of:

- a. Cultural diversity and their own cultural biases, privileges, and the importance of cultural humility & competency in education.
- b. The 5 lenses of diversity and intersectionality. Participants will understand these factors and their impacts on student's identity and educational outcomes.
- c. Diversity approaches in education such as Anti Bias Curriculum, Funds of Knowledges, Color Blind vs Culturally Responsive Teaching practices.

Audience: Early Childhood Special Educators, School Psychologist, Administrators, and Preschool Educators

Registration Deadline: February 23, 2024
