

Universal Design for Learning With Dr. Katie Novak

Participants will learn about the three principles of Universal Design for Learning (UDL) and explore strategies and resources for utilizing UDL to support all students across content areas within a framework of Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS). UDL is a framework that improves and optimizes teaching and learning for all student groups. It provides flexibility in the ways information is presented, how students respond or demonstrate knowledge and skills, and strategies to increase student engagement.

Participants will receive:

- An introduction to Universal Design for Learning.
- Opportunities to discuss the application of the UDL principles.
- A copy of UDL Now! by Katie Novak.

Presenter: Dr. Katie Novak, author of UDL Now! and an assistant superintendent in Massachusetts, is an internationally recognized expert in Universal Design for Learning (UDL): "A framework for inclusive education that aims to lower barriers to learning and optimize each individual's opportunity to learn."
